

Name: Noha Abouzeid

Email: Noha_abozeid@hq.helwan.edu.eg

Phone: 01000151363

Address: 15th of May City – Helwan -Cairo

Dr. Noha Abouzeid is currently an associate professor of Economics and Foreign Trade at the Faculty of Commerce and Business Administration, Helwan University, and a trainer in the field of entrepreneurship. She has received a Train-the-Trainer certification from the International Labor Organization (ILO). Dr. Noha acts as the course coordinator for HIVER program at Helwan University and the coordinator of HIVER program at the Faculty of Commerce, which facilitates virtual exchange between Helwan University and universities in the United States.

Dr. Noha has taught at various public universities, including Cairo University, in addition to her work at Helwan University, as well as at several International and private institutions such as ESLSCA University, Future University, the Arab Academy for Science, Technology & Maritime Transport, and the CIC.

Dr. Noha held the position of Head of Partnerships and Networks Division at the International Relations Office of Helwan University. Additionally, she worked as Deputy Director of the Technology Incubators Office at Helwan University from May 2021 to October 2023.

Dr. Noha was nominated as one of the faculty members responsible for reviewing the Egyptian state budget for the fiscal year 2024/2025. She was also recognized as one of Egypt's Young Economic Leaders (YEEL) in 2016, a distinction awarded through a national initiative aimed at identifying promising economic leaders.